

Plan a trip to Michigan's Historical Museum Field Sites

A Michigan Week Contest

Michigan Week -- May 17-23, 2008

Presented by Michigan Council for History Education in cooperation with
Michigan Historical Commission, Dept. of History, Arts, & Libraries

HOW DO I ENTER?

1. Plan an imaginary trip to Michigan's 11 official historic field sites.
Hint: Visit www.michigan.gov/hal, click on "Things to Do" and then on "Michigan Historical Museum System."
2. Pick one additional historic site of your choice to add to the 'Michigan official eleven.'
Include this site on your trip route.
3. Calculate the number of miles you would travel and record on entry form.

RULES:

1. Contest is open to all Michigan educators. (One entry per classroom. We encourage you to have your students complete this activity and share it with their parents.)
2. Official mileage distances will be based on the MDOT Michigan Highway Map available from your State Senator or State Representative.
3. Please use official entry form available at www.michiganhistoryed.org or printed on the back of this page.
4. All teachers submitting a completed contest form will receive a special Michigan Sesquicentennial First day of Issue Statehood Stamp and envelop (while supplies last). Special recognition will be presented to selected educators during Michigan Week. Three copies of Traveling Through Time: A Guide to Michigan's Historical Markers edited by Laura Ashlee will be mailed to three entries selected by random drawing.

Entry deadline is Thursday, May 1, 2008.
